*Regular-season champion. Prior to 1983 playoff participants were decided by Kraus Kount (1977-82) or by district executive committee. Regular-season champions won playoff except in the following years: 1985 - CWU; 1989 - CWU; 1991 - Whitworth (co-champion); 1992 - Lewis-Clark State; 1996 - Lewis-Clark State. The NAIA abandoned the district format in favor of conferences and regions following the 1992-93 season. After competing as a region in 1993-94, the same seven teams formed the Pacific Northwest Athletic Conference in 1994-95.

THE PAST

Leo and Dean Nicholson

CWU Winningest Team in NAIA Tournament History

Central Washington University is the winningest team in the history of the NAIA national tournament with 42 victories.

CWU also holds the record for most appearances and consecutive appearances. The Wildcats participated in their 25th national championship two years ago. Between 1974 and 1982, Central put together a string of nine straight national tournament appearances.

In 85 seasons, CWU teams have won 1,352 games and lost 719, a winning percentage of .653. Even more remarkable is the fact a father-and-son coaching combination is responsible for nearly 90 percent of the wins.

Leo Nicholson coached 505 victories in 33 seasons winning nine conference titles before retiring in 1964. Son Dean won 609 games in 26 seasons. Dean, with 38 coaching victories at Kansas City, is the winningest coach in the history of the national tournament.

CWU won 14 Evergreen Conference titles and shared the WIBA championship in 1980 (its only year of existence) under the younger Nicholson's coaching.

The Nicholsons are the winningest father-son coaching combination in the history of collegiate basketball with 1,114 victories. The historic 1,000th win came on Dec. 12, 1986 when CWU defeated Northwest Nazarene 76-71 in a tournament at Whitworth College.

Dean joined his father in the exclusive 500 victory club on Jan. 6, 1987 when the Wildcats stopped Pacific Lutheran 70-53 at Nicholson Pavilion.

In district, regional and conference playoff competition, the 'Cats have won 68 games and lost 23 and have won 25 titles, 22 during Dean Nicholson's 26-year tenure as head coach. CWU won 19 straight district playoff games between 1976 and 1982.

CWU's best finish at the national tournament came in 1970 when it placed second and Nicholson was selected the NAIA National Coach-of-the-Year. The 'Cats also finished third in 1967, 1969, 1987 and 1989 and fourth in 1985.

CWU has reached the quarterfinals of the national tournament in five of its last seven appearances, three times earning a berth in the Final Four.

First team All-American honors have been won by four CWU players - Mel Cox in 1967, Paul Adams in 1970, Rich Hanson in 1973 and Jason Pepper in 1993. Seventeen other players have either won second team, third team or honorable mention honors, including Ryan Pepper, a second-team All-American in 1995.

In 1987, Ron vanderSchaaf, who was named to the second team, was selected in the seventh round of the NBA draft by the Los Angeles Lakers.

CWU has had three coaches or administrators inducted into the NAIA Basketball Hall-of-Fame. Leo Nicholson was honored in 1964. Perry Mitchell, a long-time CWU administrator and former university president, was selected for his general contributions to NAIA sports. Dean Nicholson was inducted to the hall in 1986. Dean was also named to the NAIA's 50th anniversary all-star team in 1987.

Two Wildcat players have been tapped for special national tournament honors. Dave Benedict won the Charles Stevenson Hustle Award in 1967 and Dave Allen won the same award in 1970. The CWU team won the coveted James A. Naismith - Emil S. Liston Sportsmanship award in the 1967 tournament and again in 1989.

The Leo Nicholson Award

In 1971 a group of Ellensburg businessmen purchased a trophy to be presented each year to the top small-college basketball team in the Pacific Northwest.

The trophy is awarded to the school determined to be the outstanding team by a panel of sportswriters, broadcasters and sports information directors, who also select a Coach-of-the-Year.

The award honors the memory of the late Leo Nicholson, who won 505 games at Central from 1930 to 1964.

Central, under the direction of Leo's son Dean, won the award nine times and the younger Nicholson was voted the Coach-of-the-Year three times. CWU won the award for the 10th time in 1995 under the tutelage of Gil Coleman, who was also voted the Coach-of-the-Year.

Dean Nicholson: 609 Wins

Dean Nicholson, who coached 26 years at Central Washington University, is one of the winningest coaches in the history of collegiate basketball.

Nicholson resigned after the 1990 season. In his final season with the 'Cats, he became only the 17th coach in the entire history of intercollegiate basketball to win 600 games.

He also qualified his team for the NAIA national tournament in Kansas City for a record 22nd time and he became the winningest coach in the history of the national tournament with 38 victories.

Nicholson also was inducted into the Washington State Basketball Coaches Association Hall-of-Fame that summer. He previously had been inducted into the CWU and NAIA Hall-of-Fame. He was a charter member of the CWU Hall-of-Fame.

Only twice in 26 years at CWU did he fail to win at least 20 games. Six times he guided teams into the NAIA Final Four, placing second in 1970, third in 1967, 1969, 1987 and 1989 and fourth in 1985.

His 1970 squad won 31 games, including a school-record 25 straight, and he was voted NAIA Coach-of-the-Year. In 1987, the 'Cats posted a school-record 32 wins and Dean was selected Northwest Small-College Coach-of-the-Year for the second time in his career. His 1989 team equaled that school record with 32 victories. He also won the Northwest Coach-of-the-Year award following the 1990 season.

On seven different occasions he was voted NAIA District 1 Coach-of-the-Year. In 1987, he was voted as one of the five coaches on the NAIA's 50th anniversary all-time team.

Nicholson received numerous other honors during his illustrious coaching career. In 1970 he coached at the USA - Pan American Developmental Camp. He was the NAIA representative to the U.S. Olympic Basketball Committee and coached at the Olympic camp and trials in 1971 and 1972.

He was the head coach for AAU teams which toured South America in 1972 and 1973 and for the NAIA All-Star team in the Cup of Nations tournament in Colombia in 1974.

He was an assistant coach for the West team in the 1982 National Sports Festival in Indianapolis, Ind., and served as a member of the NABC's Hall-of-Fame committee.

Nicholson and his father Leo are the winningest father-son coaching combination in the history of collegiate basketball with 1,114 victories.

Nicholson also enjoyed a great playing career at CWU. He earned all-conference honors four straight seasons in basketball, leading the Wildcats to a conference title in 1947 and their first NAIA national tournament berth in 1950.

He scored 1377 points which still ranks seventh on the school's all-time list. In 1950, he made 83 percent of his free throws, the eighth best single-season mark in school history.

Nicholson also lettered in tennis and baseball. He led the Evergreen Conference in hitting in 1950. Off the field, he was elected president of the student body.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DR. IVORY NELSON (5th Year)

Dr. Ivory Nelson was appointed Central Washington University's 11th president in Jan., 1992.

Nelson, 59, a 31-year veteran of leadership at every level of higher education - research universities, four-year schools and two-year schools - headed the five-campus Alamo Community College District in San Antonio, Tex., for the previous six years before becoming CWU's president.

Nelson earned his Ph.D. in analytical chemistry at the University of Kansas. His undergraduate degree in secondary education and chemistry is from Grambling State.

He took the helm of the San Antonio community college district in 1986 and guided it through several severe state budget cutbacks.

Prior to 1986, Nelson worked 18 years as an administrative leader and chemistry professor in the Texas A&M university system. He served three years as executive assistant to the chancellor of that four-university system, as well as one year as acting president of Prairie View A&M.

Nelson also served as vice-president for research and special programs as assistant dean of academic affairs at Prairie View.

During the 1960s he worked as a chemistry professor and chairman of the division of natural sciences at Southern University, Shreveport, La., and as a chemistry professor at Southern University, Baton Rouge, La.

Inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa honor society at the University of Kansas, Nelson won a Fulbright lectureship in chemistry to the Universidad Autonoma de Guadalajara in 1966. He received a DuPont teaching fellowship at the University of Kansas in 1962.

Author of numerous publications on analytical chemistry and on the role of university research, teaching and public service, he has been active in professional and community projects and organizations.

Nelson and his wife, Dr. Patricia Nelson, have four grown children.
